Chapter 1. The Doctrine of the Resurrection of the Body Brought to Light by the Gospel. The Faintest Glimpses of Something Like It Occasionally Met with in Heathenism. Inconsistencies of Pagan Teaching. The resurrection of the dead is the Christian's trust. By it we are believers. The Force of This Very Phrase Explained as Indicating the Prominent Place of the Flesh in the General Resurrection. Thus far it has been my object by prefatory remarks to lay a foundation for the defence of all the Scriptures which promise a resurrection of the flesh. Down through the centuries orthodox Christians have always confessed with the Apostles' Creed: "I believe...in the resurrection of the flesh." This affirmation of faith in the believer's resurrection is grounded in faith in Christ's resurrection. "The flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other." (Gal. 5:17) If the flesh is contrary to the Spirit, it is hardly possible that it will be saved., On The Resurrection Of The Flesh.
