

Download Pain-Relieving Procedures

Pain Matrix is a fully comprehensive and innovative private pain management practice based in Geelong. We bring together medical and non-medical treatments that are proven to be the most effective available for persistent and chronic pain in a personalised treatment plan aimed at helping you get your life back. We offer a wide range of procedures, at competitive, pre-confirmed prices that include your operation, consultant's fees (both surgeon and anaesthetist), nursing care, accommodation, physiotherapy, medication, and aftercare - leaving you free to relax knowing there won't be any hidden extras for the healthcare you need. How to Relieve Neck Pain. Pain in the neck is common and can be triggered by various issues, including muscle strain, ligament sprain, jammed spinal (facet) joints, disc herniations, "pinched" nerves and diseases such as... There are many procedures, including minimally invasive procedures that can be done safely and conveniently in the office. These include procedures for the evaluation and treatment of an abnormal pap smear and irregular or excessive vaginal bleeding., Pain-Relieving Procedures.

Other Files :